

Ninth Grade Literature College Prep, Honors, and Gifted

Rising 9th graders (2017-2018) will not have an assigned summer reading assignment. The Language Arts team has elected to begin a formal novel study with students at all levels within the first six weeks of Semester One. These novel selections (which may vary between the CP, Honors, and Gifted levels) will be announced to students the first week of school.

The 9th grade team strongly encourages all rising 9th graders to “read for pleasure this summer.”
