

The 2017-2018 CLMS Yearbook is available until March 31 by pre-order only. We do not order extra books to sell, so the only way to get yours is by pre-ordering. Look below for a sneak peek at some of this year's highlights!

There are two easy and convenient ways to order your yearbook:

1. Print and fill out this form and attach $40 check (made out to CLMS) or cash and return to Mrs. Stirns in room 403 or to the front office.
2. Order online at Jostens.com. From the website, you can personalize your book and pay with a credit card.

Student Name: _____

First Period Teacher: _____

Grade: _____ Date of Order: _____ Cash _____ Check Number _____

Can't Hide Our Panther Pride

Rise and shout, the Panthers are out!

Pep Rallies and spirit days are highly anticipated events that students at CLMS get to experience twice each school year. Panthers get a break from their classes to cheer on their favorite athletes and teams and to get pumped for the upcoming sports seasons. The student basketball and volleyball teams play against the teachers with an all-out effort to beat them. The dancers and musicians add to the excitement with specially prepared performances, and cheering is part of the fun as grade levels compete to win the coveted spirit stick.

Top: Shaking the spirit stick, Ke'isha Eady (6), Qaysh Nguyen (6), Kaelan Brunton (6), and Sommer Denman (6) rock for the basketball team.

Above: Ovarious worked tirelessly on their dances. When they performed, they left the crowd wearing an encore. The Ovarious dance team worked together and put in a lot of hard work to put on this stellar performance!

Below Left: On the court, Ralph Menister (8), Jameson Meschella (8), and Sean Moaboney (8) are focused and ready to play.

Below Right: The girls' volleyball team watches the boys play before they serve it up.

Right: Full of pep and pride, Lizzette Escobar (6) dresses to impress.

Middle: Before the pep rally, Emma Hayman (7), Connor Amos (8), Austin Theorald (8), George Ramirez (6), Justin Goss (7), Trinity English (8), and Bright Moore (8) get hyped up!

Far Right: With her mischievous grin, Sarah Stack (7) is ready to "have a ball" at the pep rally!

Far Left: Winning the title of "most spirited" at the first pep rally of the year, Joyden Mikhlin (6), Dawkeyyah Yemora (7), Zoe Lally (6), and Edward Long (7) smile brightly.

Left: Decked out for the event, Isabella Sarrto (7), Lindsay Kizno (6), and Adriana Barenley (6) show their school spirit.

Left Top/Bottom: The crowd roars as Madison Sorenson (8) and Bryan Fitzgerald (6) high-five the Ovarious team.

Above: Ovarious wears the crowd with an energetic performance.

Above Left: Hoping to score for his team, Trevor Pittman (8) races down the basketball court.

Above Right: With the crowd cheering them on, Caraline Jenkins (8) and Jessica Greer (8) glide across the court with Mrs. Patel following behind.

Above Left: Mixed into a sea of purple, Dion Cordell (7), Liam Murray (7), and Christian Dorris (7) fit right in.

Above Right: With a mile-wide smile and in purple from head to toe, Dawson Conroy (8) is ready to rally.

Right: The crowd's enthusiasm is incredible as they cheer on the teachers and students.

Far Left: With a foot and steady hand, Lily Golden (8) dribbles the ball carefully while Caraline Jenkins (8) and Anna Reed (7) hustle alongside.

Middle: With their hands held high, the Ovarious team and the encores introduce Sam Lesinger (7).

Left: Abigail Pindle (6) joins two-time winners Zoe Lally (6) and Edward Long (7) as most spirited at the second pep rally.

By: Lancy Attaso & Diya Patel 55

Making History

Students are shown working in groups, participating in lessons, and using technology in the classroom.

All Adds Up

Students are engaged in math lessons, including group work and individual problem-solving.

Read, Write, Revise

Students are shown in various stages of the writing process, from brainstorming to final editing.