IMPORTANT TIPS:

- ♥ all books should be on or near your independent reading level
- ♥ audiobooks are acceptable as long as you read the book along with the audio
- ♥ bring this sheet to school and turn in to your ELA teacher
- ♥ you may get one BINGO (four in a row, any direction), or two or three
- ♥ prizes are based on total number of BINGO lines
- ♥ a blacked out BINGO card (all 16 books read) will be eligible for the grand prize!
- ♥ books may come from any source (public library, your home, book store, e-books), but they must be actual books, not short stories or stories from websites.

	Title & Author	One-sentence Summary
1
2
3	Brown Girl Dreaming Jacqueline Woodson	This is a great poetry biography by a real author.
4
5
6
7	The Great Chicago Fire Kay Olson	This is a true book about the fire that burned the entire city of Chicago.
8
9
10
11	Refugee Alan Gratz	This book was very sad. Children had to escape & leave their homes.
12
13
14
15	Harry Potter & the Deathly Hallows J.K. Rowling	This was the last Harry Potter book. I was sad to end the series.
