

Tomorrow's Leaders Application

TOMORROW'S LEADERS

FUTURES Foundation for
Volusia County Schools

PROGRAM CONSENT

To successfully complete the Tomorrow's Leaders program, students must meet several requirements, including:

- 1) Mandatory attendance at the orientation, all seminars and the mandatory graduation.
- 2) Completion of 12 hours of volunteer service during the program
- 3) Completion of post-seminar evaluation forms and a reflective essay at the end of the program

Students must also arrange their own transportation to and from each seminar's starting location (point-to-point transportation during seminars will be provided on a Volusia County School District bus or charter bus).

The seminars will be held during school hours one school day per month (possibly twice during one of the school calendar months depending on the scheduling of seminars) from November through April. Excused Volusia County School absences will be granted for each session. If dual enrolled, please note that college professors may not accept our excused absence. It is your responsibility to discuss absences with your college professor prior to committing to the program to ensure you do not have a scheduling conflict. There is a mandatory Orientation and mandatory Graduation Reception & Ceremony.

Signing below indicates agreement to comply with the stated terms and requirements of the program.
