UF CARD has a team of professionals serving children and adults with autism and related disabilities. Our goal is to help 'build capacity' such that individuals learn skills and strategies to help themselves and/or their children. All services provided by UF CARD are FREE.

UF CARD SERVICES INCLUDE:

- Orientation sessions with information about our services, an overview of autism and related disabilities, etc.
- Referrals for diagnosis, support groups, community services (i.e. agencies, doctors, therapists, etc.)
- Lending Library with books and videos on topics related to autism and related disabilities
- Support Groups for children and adults with autism and related disabilities, siblings, and parents/caregivers
- Visual Supports Lab with materials for developing schedules, communication boards, social stories, etc.
- Website, eNews, and Social Media to share information about upcoming trainings and conferences
- Consultation via email or telephone
- Consultative services (short-term) appropriate to home, school, or community upon request
- Information and Training on a variety of topics including instructional methods, communication, social skills, behavior, home/school/community issues, and adult life issues. Many trainings are available online as well as in-person and some are archived on our website for viewing on your schedule.
- Screenings to determine if further evaluation is warranted
- Annual Statewide CARD Conference featuring nationally recognized speakers held each January (scholarships may be available for CARD constituents and their parents/guardians)

CARD does not provide services such as therapy, ongoing behavioral interventions, diagnosis, or respite care.
