

Student Activity fee 2017-2018

School Board of Levy County

The following information is provided to aid in answering questions that may arise as a result of this fee program.

1. What is the purpose of this fee? This fee is being charged to help support the new UF trainer program to assist students in athletics, band and cheer. A UF trainer will be on site to assist in medical situations and serve as a go-between for your student and UF orthopedics. The trainer can also diagnose many issues such as concussions, heat exhaustion and sprained or torn ligaments. Trainers will also assist with rehabilitation necessary due to an injury in sports, cheer or band.
2. Who is expected to pay this fee? All students who participate in one of these three activities.
3. My child plays multiple sports. Will I have to pay $50 for each sport? No, this is a one-time fee for your student for the 2017-2018 school year.
4. The activity fee is only for secondary schools, grades 6-12.
 - Fall Sports (First day of practice is July 31st) Fee is due by August 11th.
 - Winter Sports (First day of practice is November 6th) Fee is due by Nov. 9th
 - Spring Sports (First day of practice is January 22nd) Fee is due Jan. 26th

Please submit this slip with your child's completed payment for the 2017-2018 school year.

I acknowledge and understand that the activity fee of $50.00 must be paid in order for my student to participate in athletics, band or cheer for the 2017/2018 school year
